John 1:(1-9), 10-18

We read in the first chapter of John's gospel a description of God's Son, who is about to become flesh and be among us. The writer does a wonderful job of telling us of the essence of the Son of God, who was with God always.

In John's description of the power of the Word, what does he teach about the light? Why do you suppose he uses a light metaphor?

Jeremiah 31:7-14

The prophet, Jeremiah, speaks volumes when he writes about faithfulness, as it relates to God's relationship with his people. He says that God will restore the people, and that they will enjoy the bounty of God.

Why do the people need to be rescued? From what will God rescue them? What has happened to the people? Why do they need redemption? Explain.

The psalmist writes of the faithfulness of God, as well as how God continues to bless his people. We read line after line about all the wonderful blessings and gifts that God places in their lives.

When you read through these verses what do the words bring to your mind regarding your view of God? How do these words expand your outlook?

Ephesians 1:3-14

In this passage Paul is describing the perfect relationship God desires with his people and all of us, who are followers of Christ. He teaches that all things will come under the rule of God through Christ.

How have you seen these things come to pass in your life? Where do you put your hope? How have you improved your relationship with the Father?
