Friday, February 5, 2021 Mark 1:21-28 We read in v. 23 that a man who was possessed by an evil spirit cried out. The evil spirit within the man was actually the one crying out to Jesus because it recognized Jesus, and it knew the real identity of Jesus. How could the evil spirit know who Jesus was without knowing Jesus? How can we know who Jesus is, without really knowing Jesus? Explain. Saturday, February 6, 2021 Life Application and Challenge According to Scripture Jesus taught with authority, and he ordered the evil spirit out of the possessed man with authority. We know that the authority of Jesus came from God, and that Jesus is God. How can we claim the authority of God by knowing Jesus? How can we use this authority to teach and disciple others? Explain.

THE † QUARRY DIGGING DOWN DEEPER IN DAILY DEVOTIONS

¹³ "Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. ¹⁴ But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.—Matthew 7:13-14—NIV

"How Might We Really Connect with Jesus?"

The week of January 31, 2021

²⁶ The evil spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek.
²⁷ The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, "What is this? A new teaching—and with authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits and they obey him."

Mark 1:21-28
According to Scripture Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum. When the Sabbath came Jesus went into the synagogue, and he began to teach.
Why do you suppose Jesus went to the synagogue at Capernaum? Why did he begin to teach the persons in attendance? What was their reaction to his teaching? Why did they react in that manner?

Deuteronomy 18:15-20
There is a pronouncement in v. 15 that God will raise up a prophet from among God's people. There is a great deal of accountability surrounding the raising up of this new prophet. The people are ordered to listen to him.
Who is speaking of this in chapter eighteen? (1) What is the setting? (2) Where are the people? (3) What is God's motivation for telling them this?

Psalm 111

Since this is a psalm of praise—praise they will! The people are celebrating the LORD and his everlasting, eternal promises to them. They know their God will provide the protection and the food they need to thrive.

1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Paul teaches in this letter to the Church at Corinth that we are not to allow the exercise of an individual freedom to become a stumbling block for others, who might be weak in that particular area.
