Matthew 9:35-10:8 (9-23)

Scripture teaches us that Jesus sent out the twelve with specific instructions to preach something very specific with a sense of urgency, and to minister to the people they encountered in several ways.

What did Jesus tell them to preach? What were they instructed to do when they encountered persons with leprosy? ...with demons?

Exodus 19:2-8a

This passage from Exodus explains how the LORD told Moses what he should share with the Israelites. God reminded Moses and the people of what he had done for them, what he would do for them, and how they were to respond.

How often have you agreed to something, only to do it halfway or not at all, versus just telling the person up front that you are unwilling? Explain in detail.

Psalm 100

The psalmist writes of how we are to praise the LORD in all we do. We learn that we are to come with gladness, and that we are to know that God is good, and that God endures forever.

How do you approach worship? What does worship mean to you? Have you ever considered the act of worship, and how we are to approach God?

Romans 5:1-8

Paul teaches that we have been justified through our faith in God, and that we should be at peace and rejoice in the hope we have in God. He explains that Christ died for us, for the ungodly.

How can we respond to this in an affirmative way? How might we better understand why Jesus came, and what he accomplished?
