Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus teaches in this lesson that he is present with us, that there is power in numbers of the believers, and that he will be with us when we come together in his name.

What does Jesus expect of us here in the twenty-first century? What does he expect of his church in this post-modern era? What does he expect of you?

Life Application and Challenge

The common theme running through the Scripture lessons this week seems to be about how we take instruction from the LORD, how we live our lives in light of these teachings, and what the LORD will do for us as a result.

How have these lessons impacted your life? How can you take these four teachings and share these concepts with others? What have you experienced?

DIGGING DOWN DEEPER IN DAILY DEVOTIONS

¹³ "Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. ¹⁴ But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.—Matthew 7:13-14—NIV

¹⁹ “Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

²⁰ For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them.”
Matthew 18:19-20—NIV

What teaching points, lifestyle questions, and biblical learnings can I take away from the sermon and apply to my own life today?

MY PRAYER JOURNAL
FOR THE WEEK

Matthew 18:15-20

In these verses of our gospel lesson we learn how to deal with brothers and sisters within the church as they commit sins or sin against us. There are three steps that are ordered by Scripture.

What are the three degrees or three steps of confrontation that will help us to engage persons within our congregation, who have sinned against another?

Ezekiel 33:7-11

Ezekiel teaches that we have a duty to God to speak out to individuals and to entire organizations that are sinning against God.

What is the penalty for persons who do not turn from their evil ways? What is the penalty for persons who do not speak out to others to turn from their evil ways? How are we held accountable in our lives in both scenarios?

Psalm 119:33-40

The psalmist seems to have his heart in the right place. He is describing his desire to submit to the LORD and to gain clarity regarding the LORD's leading in his life. He seems to be sincere in his desire to follow the LORD's teachings.

How might we better submit to the LORD in our lives here in the twenty-first century? How might we better favor the things of the LORD in our lives?

Romans 13:8-14

Paul teaches in this passage to the Romans that we are not to participate in specific sinful activities against God and humanity.

What does Paul teach about love? How important is it for us to act out of love for others? How are we to behave? How are you doing with this teaching?
