Matthew 18:21-35

In this passage Jesus teaches Peter that we are to forgive others seventy times seven. In other words we are to be as forgiving of others as our Father in heaven is forgiving of us.

Remember a time in your life when forgiveness was an essential part of the relationship. Were you able to forgive? Explain your thoughts.

Genesis 50:15-21

In this passage from Genesis Joseph's brothers were very concerned about their sins against him. They concocted a scheme involving the death of their father, and their own words regarding forgiveness.

What did Joseph's brothers want more than anything else? What kind of response did they receive? How was God at work in this? Explain.

Psalm 103:(1-7), 8-13

The psalmist realizes that forgiveness and redemption are essential gifts of the LORD. He also recognizes the importance of the LORD's forgiveness.

How does the LORD show his compassion and his graciousness to us? How often does the LORD forgive us? To whom is this forgiveness shown, and how is it measured? How important is this concept to you? Why is it important?

Romans 14:1-12

Paul's idea of acceptance and judgment are described to the reader/hearer in terms of how we are to treat others. The same is true today.

How do you pass judgment on others? How do you look upon people, with whom you come in contact, with contempt and judgment? What does Scripture teach on the subject?
