Luke 1:26-38

Throughout biblical history God has used a variety of people to accomplish his divine purposes. When he sent the angel, Gabriel, to Nazareth to visit Mary, this visit was to be the most important angelic visit of all time.

How did Gabriel approach Mary? How did he greet her? Once he told her about what was in store, what did Mary initially say?

2 Samuel 7:1-11, 16

Scripture teaches that David was concerned about the placement of the ark in a tent rather than in a temple. He specifically shared his thoughts with his prophet, Nathan, and the LORD spoke to Nathan with instructions.

How did the LORD address Nathan, and how did he express his love for and his establishment of his people? What did he say regarding the future?

Luke 1:47-55

In these latter verses of Luke 1 we have a proclamation of what God has done for his people. Luke shares that the Mighty One has been merciful to the heirs of Abraham and his descendants.

When we read this passage nearly two thousand years later, what do we see in these words? How does this passage lift your spirits? Explain.

Romans 16:25-27

In this captivating passage from some of the final words of Paul to the early Christian people of Rome, Paul seems to be honoring God, while he defends his belief in and work with people across the known world.

What does Paul seem to be urging the reader/hearer of this passage to do? How does he support his proclamation of the risen Christ? Explain in detail.
